A beautifully presented 3/4 bedroom semi-detached family home, which has been remodelled, upgraded and extended by the current owners and offered to the market with NO CHAIN. The home is located in the popular village of Smallfield, on a no through road close to shops and amenities, with easy access to Horley town and Gatwick Airport.

On approach to the home, you have a newly laid gravel driveway with parking for multiple vehicles. You have side access to garden and entrance to the home itself. Entering, you have a bright and airy hallway, with doors to the downstairs bedroom/study, kitchen and open plan living/dining room. Starting in the downstairs bedroom/office, there is ample accommodation for a double bed and furniture, or perfect for a large home office. There is a window to front allowing in lots of natural light. The kitchen is finished with modern white gloss wall and base units, freestanding appliances and newly installed work surfaces. It is completed with a window to rear and door to utility, which spans along the majority of the side wall with doors to front and rear.

The living/dining room is a real highlight of the home, flooded with natural light and a beautiful finish throughout. There is also ample space for multiple family sofas and freestanding furniture. Doors lead to the orangery which has panoramic views of the garden.

Upstairs, a spacious landing gives access to all 3 good sized bedrooms and contemporary shower room. Bedrooms 1 and 2 are comfortably able to house king size beds and furniture, with bedrooms 3 housing a small double bed and storage. The bathroom is finished to a modern white suite, with a walk in shower, w/c, wash hand basin and a full length panelled bath and stylish tiling surrounding.

Outside to rear, the home boasts a sizable garden, which is mainly laid to lawn with patio areas abutting the property, and leading to the left hand side along the entirety of the garden.

Internal viewings are highly advised to appreciate the size and condition of the property
