Vincent Square, London

Set within one of Westminster's most distinguished garden squares, this well proportioned garden flat on Vincent Square extends to approximately 622 sq ft and offers a rare sense of calm and openness in the heart of central London.

The apartment is arranged with a natural flow, centred around a generous reception room that feels both comfortable and versatile, equally suited to quiet evenings or informal entertaining. The proportions are well judged, allowing for a defined seating area as well as space for dining without compromise.

To the rear, the property benefits from a private garden, offering a valuable extension of the living space and a welcome sense of seclusion. Within the garden sits a separate garden room, equipped with electricity, which provides an ideal setting for a home office, studio or additional storage.

The bedroom is notably spacious and quietly positioned, providing a genuine sense of retreat from the surrounding city. There is ample room for storage, while the overall feel is one of simplicity and ease rather than over specification. A well maintained bathroom completes the accommodation, thoughtfully arranged and in keeping with the rest of the flat.

Despite its peaceful setting, the property is exceptionally well connected. Victoria, St James's Park and Pimlico stations are all within easy walking distance, providing access to the Victoria, District and Circle lines, as well as mainline services from Victoria. The surrounding streets offer a good selection of local restaurants, cafés and day to day amenities, with the River Thames and St James's Park also close by.
