Set along Church Street in the popular area of Kimberworth, this property sits in a spot that works well for those wanting easy access to both local everyday essentials and bigger shopping trips. Meadowhall is only a short drive away, offering the well-known shopping centre plus train and tram stations that make getting around South Yorkshire straightforward. Local bus routes run through Kimberworth itself, while the M1 motorway is within comfortable reach for those commuting further afield. Everyday shopping is taken care of with Aldi and Tesco Express nearby, and Rotherham town centre is just a short journey for a wider mix of high street names and independent shops.

Families are likely to appreciate the schools in the area, including Kimberworth Community Primary School and Winterhill School, which have built up decent reputations locally. There are also parks and open spaces dotted around, giving options for walks or somewhere for children to play. Pulling up outside, the property has a straightforward frontage with a small garden area and a driveway that runs along the side to a single garage. This means parking for more than one car is simple, plus there's still space for visitors to park on the street. Stepping through the entrance hall, there's a staircase up to the first floor and a handy downstairs w.c., always a bonus in busy households.

The dining kitchen is fitted with oak effect wall and base units, leaving plenty of room for free-standing appliances and a dining table. This is a spot that works as the heart of the home, where meals can be shared or kids can get on with homework. While it's perfectly functional as it stands, there's scope here for someone to modernise or redesign to personal taste.

Heading upstairs, the landing links three bedrooms and the family bathroom. The main bedroom benefits from fitted furniture that offers useful storage, while the other two bedrooms are suited to children, guests, or even a home office set-up. The bathroom is fitted with a standard three piece suite, again ready to use but could be updated over time to create a more contemporary feel.

Outside to the rear is where this property really starts to show extra promise. A generous garden stretches out with a patio area ideal for outdoor furniture, plus a lawn that gives a good amount of space for kids to play or for those who might be keen gardeners. Well-placed borders around the edge add some interest, but there's still plenty of room for anyone wanting to add raised beds or more planting.

This is the sort of property that suits buyers at different stages – whether starting out, moving up, or even looking for somewhere to downsize that still offers outdoor space and parking. Being sold with no chain means the process could move along quicker than usual, a real benefit in today's market. With Kimberworth's mix of handy shops, reputable schools, and straightforward connections to Rotherham, Sheffield and beyond, it's easy to see why this area remains popular. This property is ready for someone new to come in and add their own ideas, turning it into a home that fits individual needs and style.
