Agents Notes

Title register restrictions (WM650458):

- The owner cannot build any structures or plant trees near the electricity lines without getting permission from the electricity company first and they have the right to enter the land to install, check, and repair power lines and equipment.
- The property is subject to restrictive covenants (binding rules) from 1997 that limit how the property can be used to protect the character of the area.
- There are rules about not blocking light or air to neighbours and how boundary fences or walls must be looked after.
- We have been unable to verify if Planning Permission or Building Regulation Certification are required for the previous works undertaken to the property. We ask that you make enquiries to satisfy yourself and seek guidance from your conveyancer.
