

Clerks Croft, Bletchingley

“

Offered to the market end of chain, this is a rare opportunity to acquire a well-presented and substantial detached property in one of Bletchingley's most desirable locations. The close is arranged around a pretty central green creating a residential setting with a real village feel.

Situated in the highly regarded and picturesque village of Bletchingley, this well-presented four bedroom detached home occupies a prime corner plot within the sought-after Clerks Croft. Clerks Croft backs directly onto Bletchingley Golf Course and there are paths leading directly to beautiful rural walks offering an enviable setting rarely available.

Bletchingley is renowned for its village charm, with popular public houses, a historic church, and a selection of local shops catering for day-to-day needs, all within easy reach.

The accommodation is both spacious and well presented. On the ground floor, the generous kitchen/dining room is complemented by a separate utility room and larder. There is a substantial lounge with a beautiful brick fireplace, which opens into a large conservatory overlooking the garden. A separate study offers flexibility and currently incorporates a modern lift providing access to the fourth bedroom on the first floor, enhancing accessibility if required.

Upstairs, there are four well-proportioned bedrooms, all benefiting from built-in wardrobes. The primary bedroom features an en suite shower room, while the remaining bedrooms are served by a family bathroom. The property also benefits from ample storage throughout.

Externally, the wrap-around garden offers a combination of seating areas, lawn and a vegetable patch. A large garage, driveway parking for two vehicles, and additional parking within the close complete the practical advantages of this impressive home.
