A charming double-fronted two-bedroom stone cottage located in the centre of Mount Hawke. Set back from the road, the property enjoys a good-sized, enclosed and private front garden mainly laid to lawn with mature shrubs and two useful external stores. The accommodation includes a separate living room with wood-burning stove and a spacious open-plan kitchen/ dining/family room with beamed ceiling and decorative feature range, with doors leading to the rear garden. There is also a utility room with airing cupboard and a ground floor bathroom with shower over the bath. To the first floor are two generous double bedrooms with original floorboards and wood panelling. The enclosed rear garden features decking, artificial turf and a covered pergola, creating an ideal space for outdoor relaxation and entertaining.
