There's something special about pulling through the gates at Barley Court.

Maybe it's the feeling of privacy. Maybe it's the quality of the homes. Or maybe it's simply knowing you're arriving somewhere you'll be proud to call home.

An exclusive collection of just five individually designed homes in the heart of Mere Green, with four stunning properties now ready for immediate occupation. Thoughtfully designed, beautifully finished and built by a developer with an outstanding reputation for quality craftsmanship, Barley Court offers the rare opportunity to enjoy a brand-new home without the wait. Whether it's the exceptional build quality, generous living space or one of Sutton Coldfield's most sought-after locations, this is a development that deserves to be experienced in person.
