Located in the beautifully renovated, Longlands Mill is this stunning First Floor one-bedroomed apartment, which is an absolute must for viewings!
Originally built around 1805 as a thriving cotton mill, this landmark building has been lovingly restored. The transformation perfectly retains many original features such as exposed brickwork and soaring ceilings. The property boasts a stylish Open Plan design, complete with modern fitted kitchen equipped with an oven & hob, fridge/freezer, and washer/dryer. The spacious double bedroom includes a free-standing wardrobe. Bathroom with shower. Residents will benefit from a secure door entry system, a lift to all floors, underfloor heating, and secure underground parking.
Positioned in a picturesque riverside location right between the river and the canal, the development offers gorgeous communal grounds. For commuters, the train and bus stations are both within short walking distance. Vibrant local amenities are right on your doorstep!
