Jodie says:

“I really love how tucked away this lovely three-bedroom mid-terrace home feels, right in the heart of the beautiful village of Findern. It has such a welcoming feel from the moment you step inside, and the layout just works so well for everyday living.

You enter through a handy porch, which leads you into a bright dining space, a perfect first impression of how light and open this home feels. From here, the space flows effortlessly into the living area, creating a really natural and sociable setting. This in turn links beautifully through to the kitchen, making the whole ground floor feel connected and easy to live in. The kitchen itself is really well appointed, and I especially love the fantastic pantry, such a practical and thoughtful feature. There’s also a lovely breakfast area, ideal for quiet mornings, along with a useful side door leading to a handy storage passageway.

One of my favourite features is the patio doors leading directly out from the living area, opening straight onto a fantastic patio space, perfect for summer evenings and entertaining. Beyond this, the good-sized garden offers plenty of space to enjoy, whether that’s relaxing, gardening, or family time outdoors.

Upstairs continues to impress with two amazing-sized double bedrooms, both feeling generous and comfortable. The third bedroom to the front is also a great size, offering flexibility as a nursery, home office, or guest room. A spacious family bathroom completes the home, making it practical as well as comfortable for family life.

Overall, this is such a lovely home in a beautiful village setting, tucked away yet so welcoming, and it’s easy to imagine making wonderful memories here.”

A message from the seller:

"Welcome to our home. It's been a truly special place for us and leaving it behind is not something we're doing lightly. As our family has grown and the children have got older, we've simply found ourselves needing a little more space, which is the only reason we're moving on. Nestled in a peaceful village setting, the house offers the perfect balance of countryside living while still being incredibly well connected, with easy access to the A38, A50 and Derby city centre. Day-to-day life here is so convenient, with local shops and a post office close by, yet you're never far from open green spaces, ideal for walks and getting outdoors. We've especially loved having the marina nearby, with its mix of cafés, restaurants, and scenic walks. For families, there are great local schools including Findern Primary School and John Port Academy, with the added bonus of free bus transport, and plenty of parks around the village for children to enjoy. What really makes this place stand out, though, is the sense of community, it's a close-knit, friendly area where neighbours genuinely look out for one another. It's a home and location we've cherished, and we're confident the next owners will feel the same."
