HARRIS & BIRT

Set within a particularly generous and private plot in the heart of the popular coastal village of Rhose, this charming detached cottage-style home combines wonderful original character with spacious and versatile accommodation. The property retains a wealth of attractive period features, including beautiful wood parquet flooring, stained glass windows and a distinctive curved entrance door. The ground floor comprises an entrance porch, welcoming living and dining room, conservatory overlooking the gardens, generous kitchen/breakfast room, rear utility and pantry, and a convenient WC. Upstairs, there are four double bedrooms, including a spacious principal bedroom with en suite shower room, and a family bathroom. The gardens are a particular highlight of the property. Mature trees and established hedging surround the home. Lawns wrap around the front and side of the house, complemented by established planting, apple trees and a pretty walled patio – an ideal spot for outdoor entertaining. To the rear is a further enclosed lawned garden, providing additional space for children, gardening or simply enjoying the outdoors. A brick-paved driveway provides off-road parking for several vehicles and leads to a detached garage. The location is equally appealing, with Rhose village amenities within walking distance, including a range of shops, primary schooling, library, dentist and leisure and sporting facilities. Rhose railway station provides convenient services towards Cardiff and Bridgend, while the surrounding road network offers easy access to other major centres. The beautiful Vale of Glamorgan coastline is close at hand, with the Glamorgan Heritage Coast and its scenic coastal walks only a short walk away. Cardiff Airport is nearby. Offering an unusual combination of character, privacy, generous gardens and excellent village convenience, this is a distinctive family home in one of the Vale of Glamorgan's popular coastal communities.
