The Property

Situated in the popular market town of Llanidloes, 2 Dolgwenith is a well loved three bedroom semi detached home offering flexible accommodation across three floors, a larger than average garden and gated off road parking. An excellent opportunity for first time buyers, families and investors alike, it has been a happy home for its current owners and now offers the perfect chance for the next owners to put their own stamp on it.

The front door opens into an entrance hall, leading through to the living room, a comfortable space with a large window to the front. Beyond, the kitchen is fitted with a range of light wood units, a gas hob, built in oven and space for appliances, with a window overlooking the garden. Opening from the kitchen, the conservatory creates a bright dining area with doors leading out onto the garden. A useful side porch provides everyday access into the kitchen and utility room, which houses the boiler and offers additional storage and plumbing for laundry, together with a cloakroom with WC.

The first floor offers two generous double bedrooms, one enjoying an open outlook to the front and the other overlooking the rear garden. These are served by a fully tiled bathroom with a bath and shower over, together with a separate WC. Stairs continue to the second floor, where the third bedroom is tucked into the eaves, creating a versatile room with a skylight framing lovely views across the rooftops to the surrounding hills.

Outside, the property is approached via a gated gravel driveway providing off road parking. The rear garden is a real highlight, having been extended by the current owners through the purchase of additional land, making it significantly larger than neighbouring gardens. Immediately behind the house is an enclosed area with artificial lawn, a patio and a timber playhouse, while beyond is a generous expanse of lawn with a garden shed and plenty of space for keen gardeners, children to play or simply to enjoy the outdoors.

Altogether, 2 Dolgwenith is a well loved home with plenty of potential, ready for its next chapter.

The Location

The beautiful Mid Wales town of Llanidloes is rich in history and has so much to offer residents and visitors alike. It is home to the iconic Market Hall which is the oldest timber-framed market hall still in situ in Wales.

The town itself is packed with amenities including a dentists, Medical Centre, cottage hospital, Primary School, Secondary School with Welsh and English language streams, pubs, cafes, take-aways and a wide range of shops ranging from butchers / fishmongers / bakeries / greengrocers to an independent book shop and artisanal boutiques.

The town has a bustling social calendar culminating in the annual Llanidloes Carnival every July.

For anyone interested in pursuing outdoor activities the opportunities are endless. Llanidloes is 4 miles from the Llyn Clywedog Dam, a 615 acre reservoir built on the head waters of the river Severn in the late sixties, offering scenic walking and cycling routes as well as trout fishing through the local Angling Club. There are well supported cricket, football and rugby clubs the latter of which plays host to the ever growing Heart of 7s – Wales’ largest sports and music festival.
