The Byre House is situated in the middle of this highly desirable village with a separate 2 bedroom cottage and wonderful views at the rear. The house has great open plan reception space and bags of character. There is ample parking and a useful garage.

The House

Path leads to the front door and leads straight into the sun room. From here you enter the kitchen area with a good array of base and eyelevel units and a mixture of wood and granite work tops with Belfast sink, a recently installed Rangemaster all electric induction hob range cooker and a dishwasher. There is a double store cupboard, an understairs cupboard and a Log burner on a stone hearth with a recessed log store to one side. Arch leads through a spectacular open plan room of over 50' with a dining area with views over the field to the side of the house. A further arch leads to the sitting area with triple aspect and French doors to the paved outside terrace and garden. The ceiling is open to the beams and creates a great feeling of space. There is an open fireplace with stone mantle and surrounds with a stone hearth and large Jotul log burner. From the kitchen there are steps to the laundry room with a Butlers sink with a washing machine and tumble dryer installed below and a cupboard housing the hot water tank. A further door leads to the garage. The house has a large capacity Air Source Heat Pump installed that provides the domestic hot water and central heating for the house. The whole of the downstairs has underfloor heating with conventional radiators to the first floor.

First floor:- landing area with linen cupboard and access via a hatch to the roof space. Bedroom 1 has a double aspect with far reaching views and is open to the ceiling with wooden beams. There is an en-suite bathroom with a panel enclosed bath with a separate wall mounted shower and glass screen, wash handbasin set in a vanity unit with a granite top and cupboard below, low level WC, wall mounted heated towel rail, wall shaver socket and a second door leading to the landing. Bedroom 2 is double aspect with great views, beamed open ceiling, dressing/sitting area and 2 sets of built-in wardrobes. En-suite shower room with shower cubicle, wash handbasin set in a vanity unit with cupboard and drawers below, mirror and light above, low level WC and wall mounted heated towel rail. Bedroom 3 has a study area with built-in desk and shelves and steps up to the bedroom area. Bedroom 4 with feature wooden beam. All the bedrooms have great views.

Outside

Large yard between the house and Church View Cottage with space to park several vehicles. The gardens are a delight and have several different aspects to them with well stocked borders, mature planting and soft fruit trees as well as raspberries and currant bushes. There is a raised vegetable area and a main paved dining area situated just off the sitting room as well as further paved areas for relaxation and a designated BBQ area with a stone store. There are a couple of wooden log stores and a substantial wooden work shed. The views from the garden are stunning and South facing with a clear 35 mile vista on a clear day up to the Yorkshire Moors, Sutton Bank and The White Horse as well as over the valley and up to Swinton Woods. Across the yard stands Church View Cottage.

Church View Cottage

Church View Cottage

This is a stone built single storey farm building converted into a separate cottage, with a large sitting/dining room, fully fitted kitchen, two bedrooms and a bathroom with shower. Outside it has a small secure enclosed garden with a paved area and lawn, with the same stunning views as The Byre House. From a separate outside door via stairs there is access to a large loft storage room above. Over recent years it has been successfully let out as a furnished holiday let but could equally serve as a granny annexe.
