A charming two bedroom detached cottage occupying an elevated position overlooking Clydach Gorge, and enjoying truly impressive far-reaching views across the surrounding landscape. Very well presented throughout, the property retains a wealth of period features and is a home of real warmth and character. Accessed via a pathway running up from the roadside, the accommodation is arranged over two floors with the ground floor including a living room with exposed stone fireplace housing a wood burning stove. The living room opens through to a separate dining area, off which is the kitchen with separate entrance. Upstairs there is a 15' principal bedroom picture window providing views over the field to the rear, a second double bedroom and a large bathroom. As charming as the house is, it is matched by the superb south facing garden and the views that it enjoys across the Gorge. It comprises a central area of lawn with a large bed to the side stocked with mature plants and shrubs, and a number of similarly mature borders. There are slightly raised lawned terraces to the side with wood store and shed. Situated within the popular village of Clydach, the location allows access to local amenities, and scenic walks within Bannau Brycheiniog National Park while also offering excellent links to Abergavenny and the wider road network.
