The lower ground floor is anchored by a notably spacious kitchen and dining room, with additional entertainment space, enhanced by a striking glass roof that brings wonderful daylight into the heart of the home. This space flows directly onto a private patio. This level also includes a guest WC along with two excellent vaults that provide highly valuable storage.

On the ground floor, a bright and inviting reception room spans the width of the property. The home features two well appointed bedrooms, each with its own ensuite bathroom. The principal bedroom occupies the first floor with excellent built in storage. The second bedroom sits above and benefits from a charming Juliette balcony that adds both character and natural light.
