£200,000 (Offers Over)

Two Bedroomed 18th Century Cottage. Panoramic Views Across Tame Valley. No Vendor Chain. Must View.

Situated on the edge of the Haughton Dale Nature Reserve with picturesque scenery and stunning walks, this mid-terraced 18th Century cottage offers a peaceful escape into nature. Nestled within a tranquil community-focused neighbourhood, the property boasts woodland views across the Tame Valley, with the scenery changing every season; whilst having easy access to the local village offering a variety of shops and eateries as well as reputable local schools. This allows you to experience the joy of being surrounded by nature whilst having modern conveniences and good transport links right on your doorstep. Upon entering the property an entrance porch leads to a welcoming and homely lounge area providing a wealth of character and charm. A modern fitted kitchen with various integrated appliances boasts a contemporary feel and provides space for dining and entertaining with friends and family. To the first floor, the landing leads to a master bedroom which enjoys countryside views over the Dale. A second bedroom and family bathroom completes the first floor. To the exterior, the property has a driveway with steps leading down to a paved front garden whilst the rear of the property offers a mature tiered garden. This endearing property has the benefit of not being overlooked to the front or rear aspect. Early viewings are recommended to appreciate the rustic charm of this quaint cottage and its beautiful location.
