The accommodation comprises

Cricketers Cottage believed to date back to 17th/18th century a beautifully and very sympathetically restored Grade II listed cottage. The current vendors have worked along side the Heritage Society to keep the wonderful character and features of this stunning cottage intact. We would urge you to pay particular attention to the photography and video tour to appreciate just how amazing the garden really is.

The village offers a community run shop, public house/restaurant, church and primary school and nearby the marina and restaurant/bar. Amazing river and rural walks and the famous St Peter On The Wall Chapel, the oldest church in England built by St Cedd in 654AD just a short walk away.

This detached three bedroom cottage also comes with a wonderful self contained annexe and potential to use for Airbnb or similar.

The ground floor is approached by a generous cloaks/boot room leading into the dining room, lounge and kitchen all of which share beautiful garden and field views and utility room, bathroom and Granny room (ground floor bedroom) again looking onto the garden and fields.

The first floor has a landing and two further excellent size double bedrooms with incredible views over the garden and open fields.

The garden as mentioned is incredible and offers peace and tranquillity along with an abundance of wildlife, whether to relax, entertain or to Alfresco dine.

The pitched roof detached annexe offers a wonderful self contained space, open plan kitchen, lounge/sleeping, wet room and a ladder to the Mezzanine floor/space with large Velux and circular windows.

Gated front entrance to a driveway, space for boat/caravan and a detached garage with up and over door.

Garden

The garden is a large space and it offers peace, tranquillity and a haven for wildlife it really is impossible to do it justice in words, so we would urge you to pay particular attention to the photography, aerial shots and video tour. In brief there are mixed well stocked borders with a wide range of shrubs, plants and flowers, mature trees including a beautiful weeping willow with swing and a wild to nature area. For those entertaining days there are various spaces including a fire pit with log seating, an Alfresco dining area and when you have had enough sun, a shaded seating area to cool off, plus much much more.

This is all finished by an infinity open rear boundary to the rear overlooking open fields.

Own drive to detached garage

The cottage has a gated front entrance to its own drive for a multitude of vehicles, space for a boat/caravan. Detached garage with up and over door.
