York Street

Cambridge,
CB1 2PY

An excellent opportunity to acquire this charming and well-proportioned mid-terraced Victorian residence, offering versatile accommodation arranged over two floors. The property further benefits from a low-maintenance rear garden, with access, and occupies a highly sought-after residential street within immediate proximity of the city centre and its many amenities. Offered for sale with no onward chain.

LOCATION

York Street is a well-regarded residential street situated within the highly popular Petersfield district of the city, an area widely regarded for its convenient access to a wealth of amenities and its close proximity to the historic centre of Cambridge. The property is ideally positioned for a variety of local shops, cafés and restaurants along nearby Mill Road, together with excellent transport links including Cambridge Railway Station, providing regular services to London and beyond. The recently developed CB1 Business District lies close by, while the historic city centre offers an extensive range of shopping, cultural and recreational amenities.
