This beautifully refurbished four-bedroom family home offers generous, well-planned living space across three floors and is finished to an exceptional standard throughout.

The ground floor features a superb open-plan kitchen/dining area with integrated appliances – including a built-in air fryer – opening directly onto a private rear garden, plus a separate front reception room and guest WC. The first floor provides a spacious principal bedroom, a modern family bathroom and a flexible additional reception or home office space. The second floor offers three further bedrooms and a second contemporary bathroom.
