Battisford is a small, picturesque village and civil parish in Mid Suffolk, set within open countryside approximately four miles south of Stowmarket and around two miles west of Needham Market. Its largely agricultural surroundings create a peaceful, semi-rural atmosphere that appeals to those seeking a slower pace of life, whilst remaining conveniently positioned for access to a wider range of facilities. Nearby Needham Market and Stowmarket provide everyday amenities, schooling, and mainline rail links to London Liverpool Street, while the A14 offers excellent road connections across the region.
