Introduction

This elegant classically inspired end-of-crescent townhouse with meadow views, roof terrace, walled garden, off-street parking and garage is ideally situated on the fringe of the historic medieval grid in Bury St. Edmunds.

Forming part of an exclusive development adjacent to the water meadows, this elegant townhouse is immaculately presented and occupies an enviable situation on the edge of the town centre. Finished to an exceptionally high standard throughout, the design and construction reflect a traditional building style, reminiscent of Georgian crescent. Behind its impressive symmetrical façade is light, spacious and contemporary accommodation, arranged over three storeys, combined with modern efficiencies. A high level of attention was paid to the specification of the house, which is evident in details such as its high ceilings, decorative mouldings, double glazed sash windows and abundant storage. The homeowners have in recent years commissioned a no expense spared updating of interiors, including stunning Jim Lawrence lighting, sleek Grohe fixtures in the refurbished bathroom and two en-suite shower rooms, sleek Rennie Mackintosh minimalist kitchen and luxurious Amtico floors blended with striking wood floors. The substantial accommodation is arranged around and flows seamlessly from an impressive central reception space with its spectacular adjoining garden room configured with an expanse of glazing and underfloor heating.

1 Corsbie Close is conveniently located within the historic Cathedral town of Bury St. Edmunds and is situated in a desirable residential enclave on the edge of the town centre. Excellent A14 access is via Cullum Road.

Downstairs.

No 1 Corsbie Close was built in the Millennium of traditional construction with mellow brick elevations under a slate pitched roofline to create an impressive end-of-terrace in a Georgian style crescent. The scheme is often referred to by the original marketing name of Cathedral Meadows and features a pleasing mix of carefully designed townhouses by Land Charter Plc – a well-regarded regional developer – forming an attractive collection of residences. The versatile, well-appointed and beautifully arranged accommodation measures approximately 2,200 sq ft (204.3 sq m).

A large Georgian-style portico with pediment, decorative Doric columns and mouldings leads to a part glazed wood panelled entrance door surmounted by a decorative fanlight, which opens into a spacious reception hall offering a great deal of light via sash windows. Half glazed casement doors open to a grand reception space, currently split into dining and lounge areas with a pleasing mix of wall and pendant lights while the focal point is the striking stone fireplace surround. A further set of glazed double doors open into the garden room with its panoramic south-facing fenestration and dramatic octagonal rooflight.

A light and contemporary dual aspect kitchen is enhanced by the Rennie Mackintosh designer kitchen with its signature minimalism, sleek lacquered cabinetry and handleless J-Pull drawers, all is clad in Corian worktops and finished with an Amtico floor. Appliances include full height fridge/freezer, dishwasher, oven and grill, four ring induction hob – all by Bosch. A downstairs cloakroom is off the entrance hall and a wine store / boot room.
