Summary

Nestled in the desirable Norton Lees Crescent, this charming semi-detached house, built between 1930 and 1939, offers a perfect blend of comfort and convenience for family living. The property features three bedrooms and a modern family shower room, making it an ideal choice for those seeking a welcoming home.

Upon entering, you are greeted by a spacious entrance hall that leads to a bright and inviting living room, complete with a lovely front bay window that fills the space with natural light. The heart of the home is undoubtedly the impressive dining kitchen, which boasts a range of matching wall and base units, along with a built-in pantry, providing ample storage and workspace for culinary enthusiasts.

The first floor comprises a landing that connects to three bedrooms, with the master bedroom featuring built-in sliding mirror-fronted wardrobes, adding a touch of elegance and practicality. The family shower room is fitted with a contemporary three-piece white suite and part ceramic tiled walls, ensuring a stylish and functional space.

Externally, the property is equally appealing, with a front garden and a driveway to the side that accommodates off-road parking for two vehicles. The rear garden is a delightful South Westerly facing retreat, perfect for enjoying sunny afternoons. It features decked and patio seating areas adjacent to the house, complemented by a lawn and mature planted borders. At the end of the garden, you will find an additional deck and a timber garden shed, providing extra storage or a charming space for hobbies.

This property is ideally located close to local amenities, including shops and a primary school, making it a fantastic opportunity for families looking to settle in a vibrant community. Don't miss the chance to make this lovely house your new home.
