Candlin and Co Ltd offer A spacious five-bedroom end-terrace property located in the heart of Willenhall, offering versatile accommodation ideally suited for supported living or use as a disabled care home.

The property features five well-proportioned bedrooms, providing ample space for residents and staff. There is a main family bathroom on the upper floor, complemented by convenient downstairs shower and toilet facilities, enhancing accessibility and ease of use for individuals with mobility needs.

The layout lends itself well to care provision, with generous living areas that can be adapted for communal use, along with the benefit of an end-terrace position offering additional privacy and potential outdoor access. The property benefits from interlinked smoke alarms and fire doors.

Situated in a well-connected residential area, the property benefits from proximity to local amenities, transport links, and healthcare services, making it a practical and attractive option for supported living providers.
