GENERAL COMMENTS

6 Newquay Road is a very attractive semi detached modern house located on the eastern side of Truro city with the benefit of having Waitrose as your corner shop, literally within a moments' walk. The house is impeccably presented and has been built in a traditional way and in a Georgian style with very high ceilings and large sliding sash windows affording plenty of natural light. It really is a very attractive building that was designed by architects working with the Duchy Of Cornwall and influenced by Prince Charles. The accommodation is very well arranged over two floors with quality fittings including solid oak doors and luxurious kitchen and bathrooms. The accommodation comprises: entrance hall, large open plan sitting, kitchen and dining room, cloakroom, utility two double bedrooms and bathroom. In addition the master bedroom has an en-suite shower room. Outside is parking and a private enclosed garden that enjoys the afternoon sun. An internal viewing is essential. The house is sold with no chain.

LOCATION

6 Newquay Road is perfectly located for swift access into Truro and is within walking distance of the new Waitrose store, Great Cornish Food Hall and the Eastern Park and Ride with very regular service into the city centre and Treliske Hospital. The city of Truro is the main commercial and administrative centre of the county and here there is an excellent range of shopping facilities with many of the national multiples including a flagship Marks and Spencer store, historic Cathedral and several private and state schools. The Hall For Cornwall offers a varied programme of entertainment and there are eighteen hole golf courses at Truro, Falmouth and St. Austell. The nearby creeks of St. Clements and Malpas offer numerous delightful walks and sailing opportunities are available at Mylor and Falmouth.
