ACCOMMODATION

This substantial, detached period-style residence opens through an enclosed porch into a welcoming entrance hallway and staircase area leading to both floors. The ground-floor layout is perfectly designed for both family life and formal entertaining, featuring a spacious drawing room, an elegant dining room, a separate study, and a light-filled garden room. The practical everyday spaces include a fitted kitchen supported by an adjoining utility, pantry, and storage room, along with a convenient ground-floor WC and cloakroom. Upstairs, the first-floor landing leads to four well-proportioned bedrooms—including a luxurious principal bedroom—all served by an airing cupboard and a well-appointed family bathroom featuring a separate shower enclosure. The property is positioned within beautiful, established grounds, starting with a grand front elevation framed by mature deciduous trees and hedging on both sides. A broad tarmac and stone-effect driveway sweeps across the front of the home, providing ample parking and access to an integrated garage on the left-hand side, which features a separate adjacent pedestrian door. A generous front garden with a neat lawn and established planted borders enhances the home's impressive kerb appeal. To the rear, the accommodation flows out into an extensive lawned garden complete with dedicated patio seating areas, a peaceful water feature, and charming garden ornaments, creating a private and scenic outdoor sanctuary.

Description of Property

An impressive and particularly attractive detached period residence occupying a prominent position on Somerville Road, Sutton Coldfield, enjoying a wonderful combination of substantial accommodation, striking architectural character, and established landscaped gardens. Approached via a generous sweeping driveway providing ample parking and access to the integral double garage, the property immediately conveys a sense of grandeur, with its handsome red-brick elevations, steeply pitched tiled roof, multiple substantial chimney stacks, and an array of distinctive projecting bay windows. Mature trees, shrubs, and well-established borders provide an attractive and private setting, whilst the traditional detailing of the house gives it considerable kerb appeal. The impressive reception hall provides access to the principal ground-floor rooms and the staircase rising to the first floor. The drawing room is a particularly elegant reception space, distinguished by its striking curved bow window and feature fireplace, whilst the adjoining dining room provides an excellent setting for more formal entertaining and benefits from French doors leading outside. The separate study is another generously proportioned room and enjoys the benefit of its own attractive curved bay window, providing a pleasant environment for home working or quiet relaxation. The fitted kitchen is complemented by a useful utility room, with excellent ancillary storage provided by the adjoining pantry and store. A further highlight is the separate garden room, which enjoys a light and attractive outlook and incorporates French doors, making it equally suitable as a garden sitting room, hobby room, or informal retreat. A ground-floor cloakroom and enclosed porch complete the principal accommodation on this level. To the first floor are four well-proportioned bedrooms, including an exceptionally generous principal bedroom with its own impressive curved bay window. Bedrooms Two and Three are also particularly well sized, with Bedroom Three benefiting from a further attractive projecting bay, whilst Bedroom Four provides a versatile fourth bedroom or guest accommodation. The bedrooms are beautifully served by a well-appointed family bathroom and a useful airing cupboard. Throughout, the accommodation benefits from the architectural features associated with this distinctive period property, most notably the repeated use of curved bay windows, tall multi-pane glazing, attractive brick detailing, and substantial chimney stacks. The combination of generously proportioned rooms and versatile ancillary spaces creates a home which is both impressive for entertaining and eminently practical for modern family life. The property features a spacious, multi-tiered English country garden that perfectly blends outdoor living with natural charm. Directly behind the home is a large stone patio, bordered by rockeries approached by steps from the, first patio having tiered flower beds, and plenty of space for outdoor furniture and a parasol. The patio also includes a classic stone sun-dial and a charming wildlife pond. Beyond the patio, the grounds open up to a large, well-kept lawn with space for a bistro set. The lawn is framed by established borders filled with shrubs and mature trees. Surrounded by tall privacy hedging and mature trees, the garden offers a peaceful and private outdoor retreat.

Buyer Identity Verification Fee

In line with the Money Laundering Regulations 2007, all estate agents are legally required to carry out identity checks on buyers as part of their due diligence. As agents acting on behalf of the seller, we are required to verify the identity of all purchasers once an offer has been accepted, subject to contract. We carry out this check using a secure electronic verification system, which is not a credit check and will not affect your credit rating. A non-refundable administration fee of £25 + VAT (£30 including VAT) per buyer applies for this service. By proceeding with your offer, you agree to this identity verification being undertaken. A record of the search will be securely retained within the electronic property file.
