

Madeley Road, W5

£575,000

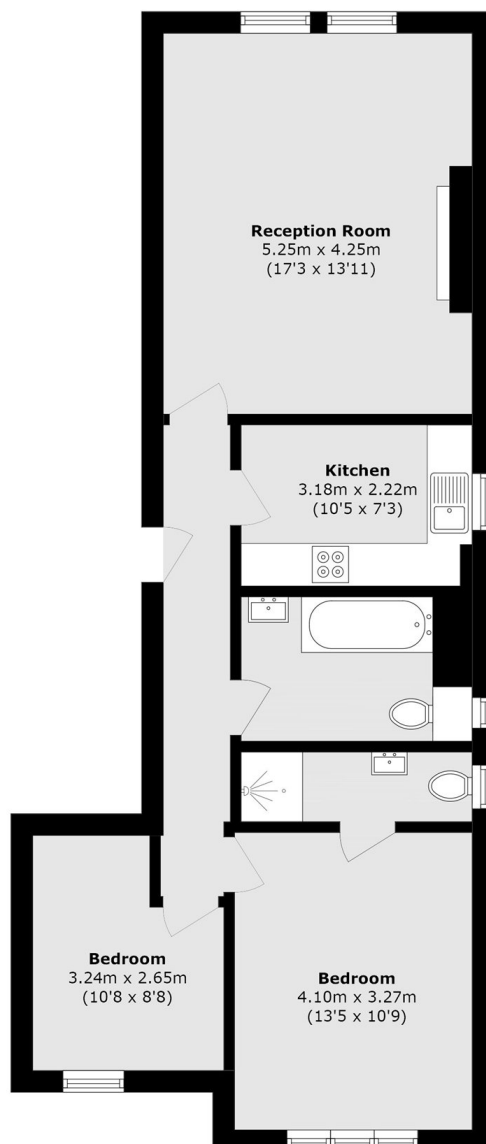

A two bedroom, two bathroom first floor period conversion, set within an impressive grand Victorian building. The property retains a wonderful sense of character, with high ceilings throughout, while further benefits include residents' first-come, first served parking to the front. To the rear is a large private garden, providing an excellent space for entertaining and with potential to create a separate home office.

Situated just 0.2 miles from Ealing Broadway station, providing Elizabeth, Central and District line services across London, as well as direct connections towards Heathrow and beyond. The property is also moments from a wide selection of shops, restaurants, gyms and the shopping centre, providing everything you could need close to home.
