A beautifully distinctive three-bedroom 1930s semi-detached home in the heart of Chaddesden, brimming with character, generous living space and an exceptional mature garden.

Full of warmth and individuality, this charming property blends period features with practical family living. A welcoming porch opens into a spacious hallway showcasing original wood panelling, elegant parquet flooring and stained-glass windows. The bright bay-fronted living room is flooded with natural light and centred around a striking stone-effect fireplace, the perfect cosy retreat. The vintage-inspired kitchen-diner offers both charm and functionality, complete with an original fire-burning range and ample space for dining and entertaining. An adjoining study area provides flexibility for home working or hobbies, with door leading directly to the true showpiece of this home, the remarkable rear garden.

Mature and private, the expansive garden offers multiple spaces to relax and entertain, including a dedicated hot tub area, summer house (ideal as a changing space), fire pit area, shaded arbour, two ornamental ponds with safety covers, substantial storage sheds and a wonderful selection of fruit trees including apple, plum and pear. It is a special outdoor sanctuary.

Upstairs features two generous double bedrooms, a comfortable single bedroom and a well-proportioned family bathroom, all retaining the home's sought-after 1930s charm. Perfect for families, first-time buyers or investors.
