The market town of Axminster offers independent shops, supermarkets and a mainline train to London Waterloo. The Jurassic Coast and South West Coastal Path are easily accessible, with Lyme Regis beach close by. Historic fishing villages like Beer and Branscombe lie in the scenic hills between Seaton and Sidmouth, providing a wealth of charm, coastal beauty, and local amenities.

At the front of the home, two elegant reception rooms enjoy bay windows and fireplaces, one with a log burner as a charming focal point. The heart of the house is a spacious open-plan kitchen/dining room, perfect for family life and entertaining. French doors open to the patio and rear garden, filling the space with natural light. The kitchen is fitted with granite work surfaces, a Belfast sink, contemporary units, an electric oven with induction hob, space for a dishwasher, and the character of an Aga. The dining area features an inset log burner. A utility room leads to a study/games room with French doors to the front garden. The ground floor also includes a downstairs W.C., a family bathroom, and a double bedroom with built-in wardrobes and patio access, ideal for guests or multi-generational living.

Upstairs, a bright landing serves four further double bedrooms, each with garden views and modern en-suite facilities. A second staircase leads to the top floor, where an additional double bedroom and a stylish bathroom with freestanding bath and separate shower offer further accommodation. Externally, the front garden is laid to lawn and screened by mature trees and hedging, with driveway access through a five-bar gate to the rear and garage. The rear garden, extending to approximately one acre, features formal lawns, an apple orchard, vegetable garden, and a large patio for entertaining. Outbuildings include a garage with attached workshop, log store, and a versatile bar/entertainment space, ideal for hobbies, home working, or further development (subject to consent).
