Situated in the popular village of Mudford, just outside Yeovil, this three bedroom detached bungalow occupies a good-sized plot and offers spacious, versatile accommodation, ideal for a range of buyers. The property comprises a welcoming entrance hall, a good-sized lounge providing comfortable living space, and a kitchen/diner with ample room for everyday dining. There are three bedrooms and a family bathroom fitted with a four-piece suite, including a separate bath and shower. Outside, the property benefits from well-maintained gardens, offering plenty of space for outdoor seating, gardening and entertaining. Ample off-road parking is complemented by a detached garage and additional workshop, ideal for storage, hobbies or practical use.

Mudford is a well-regarded village offering a peaceful rural setting whilst remaining conveniently close to Yeovil. The village benefits from a local primary school, church and countryside walks, while nearby Yeovil provides an extensive range of shops, supermarkets, leisure facilities and transport links. The surrounding Somerset countryside also offers excellent opportunities for outdoor pursuits.

Offered for sale with no onward chain, this property presents an excellent opportunity for buyers seeking single-storey living with generous outside space in a desirable village location. Early viewing is recommended.
