A beautifully presented double en-suite room available within a quality professional house share, offering comfortable accommodation, a great communal environment and the convenience of having your own private en-suite facilities.

This is a five-bedroom property, with all five bedrooms benefiting from their own en-suite, making this an ideal option for professionals looking for a little more privacy and comfort than you would typically find in shared accommodation.

The available room provides a good-sized double bedroom with space for bedroom furniture and personal belongings, creating a comfortable space to relax and unwind at the end of the day. Having your own en-suite means there is no need to share bathroom facilities with other residents, adding to the overall quality and privacy of the accommodation.

The property also benefits from a generous communal space, providing residents with a comfortable shared area to relax, eat and socialise. The communal areas have been designed to create a welcoming environment while still allowing residents to enjoy their own private bedroom and bathroom.

With five en-suite rooms within the property, this is a house share designed with modern professional living in mind. The accommodation is well presented and maintained, making it particularly suited to working professionals looking for a clean, comfortable and well-managed place to live.
