GENERAL DESCRIPTION:

Little Ridge is a detached 2 bedroom, 2 bath (1 en-suite) bungalow located within the popular south Skye township of Ord, on the sought after Sleat Peninsula (the Garden of Skye). Known for its tranquil setting and outdoor activities such as kayaking, swimming, hiking, and exploring, Ord is an ideal place for a families looking for a peaceful area to raise their children, or for first time buyers looking for a property surrounded by natural beauty. Little Ridge benefits both from ample living space and a protected outdoor space. The elevated rear garden could be transformed into a seating BBQ area with delightful views to Loch Eishort and the Cuillin mountain range, whilst the loft space could be converted (subject to planning) into additional living accommodation, or a dedicated home office. In good order throughout, this elevated bungalow is accessed via a private, fenced-in shared road, used by only three other properties. Little Ridge has the benefit of being both an excellent place for children to grow up, or an enticing holiday or investment property.

LOCATION:

The peninsula of Sleat in the south-east corner of Skye is made up of a scattering of villages of which Ord is one, located on the west side with beautiful Ord beach on Loch Eishort. Ord is famous for its sunsets, kayaking and views across to the Cuillin Mountains and out to the islands of Canna and Rum. Further south is the village of Armadale with its pretty shops, cafe and pier where you can catch the ferry to Mallaig taking you across to the Knoydart peninsula. Throughout the peninsula various amenities are to be found including a medical centre, churches, hotels, restaurants and The Clan Donald visitor centre, which incorporates the ruins of Armadale castle as well as the Museum of the Isles. The nearest main village is Broadford which is approx. 15 miles away and here you will find all the usual amenities.

ACCOMMODATION:

Little Ridge was built in 1996 and extends to some 70m². The property benefits from timber frame double glazing and electric heating via storage heaters and electric panel heaters throughout, complemented by an electric log effect wall mounted heater in the sitting room. The property sits in an elevated position and enjoys delightful countryside views.
