Situated in the heart of the picturesque Coln Valley, Coln St Aldwyns is widely regarded as one of the Cotswolds' most beautiful and desirable villages. Surrounded by rolling countryside, honey-coloured stone cottages and scenic riverside walks, the village offers a quintessential Cotswold lifestyle while remaining conveniently connected to nearby towns and amenities. The village is home to a thriving community and benefits from a village shop, post office, historic church and the highly regarded New Inn, a traditional country pub and restaurant located just moments from the property.

For those who enjoy the outdoors, there are numerous walking and cycling routes directly from the doorstep, including beautiful riverside paths and countryside trails linking neighbouring villages. The renowned village of Bibury, often described as one of the most beautiful villages in England, is just a short drive away and can even be reached via a scenic walk through the Coln Valley.

Despite its peaceful rural setting, Coln St Aldwyns is exceptionally well positioned for access to larger centres. Fairford and Bibury are both approximately 3 miles away, offering everyday amenities, cafés and local services, while the historic market town of Cirencester is just 9 miles away and provides a wider selection of shops, restaurants, leisure facilities and excellent schooling. The charming riverside town of Lechlade-on-Thames is around 6 miles away, with Burford, known as the 'Gateway to the Cotswolds', reachable in approximately 15 minutes by car.

The property is also ideally placed for exploring the wider Cotswolds Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, with popular destinations including Burford, Northleach, Stow-on-the-Wold, Bourton-on-the-Water and the Cotswold Water Park all within easy reach. For commuters, rail services to London Paddington are available from Kemble Station, approximately 20 minutes away by car.
