Located in the most picturesque corner of Clevedon's desirable Swiss Valley, this charming detached bungalow offers a lifestyle defined by peace, privacy and effortless single level living. From the moment you arrive, the scenic backdrop creates a sense of retreat from the world, making it a wonderful place to slow down and truly unpack. Inside, the property unfolds into a sequence of bright, comfortable spaces that invite both quiet relaxation and easy entertaining. You can host friends for dinner in the separate dining room, unwind in the cosy living room, or start your mornings with coffee and the newspapers in the generously sized kitchen and breakfast room. Outside, the beautifully maintained wrapping gardens offer a private sanctuary for those who love to potter in the sunshine, tend to vibrant flowerbeds, or simply sit back with a cool drink and enjoy the fresh air. For hobbies and practical needs, the property comes into its own with a private driveway leading to a garage that features a rare and highly useful MOT inspection pit, offering a dream setup for classic car enthusiasts or simply providing exceptional extra storage. Best of all, this tranquil haven does not compromise on connection, placing local amenities, scenic walking trails, and excellent transport links right on your doorstep for the perfect balance of valley serenity and town convenience.
