DESCRIPTION

Halls are delighted with instructions to offer Ashlands in Lower Frankton for sale by private treaty, with the benefit of no onward chain.

Ashlands is a traditional three-bedroom semi-detached cottage occupying an excellent position at Lower Frankton, close to the canal and enjoying attractive open views. The property now requires comprehensive modernisation and improvement but offers considerable potential enhancement and extension (STPP), allowing a purchaser wishing to create a home to their own specification.

A particular feature is the generous outside space, with gardens and grounds extending in all to approximately 0.39 acres. The property is complemented by a useful detached double garage, whilst its appealing rural setting and proximity to the canal further enhance what is an increasingly rare opportunity.

SITUATION

The property occupies a truly exquisite position within the rural hamlet of Lower Frankton on the banks of the Llangollen Branch of the Shropshire Union Canal, providing immediate access to a network of towpaths, country lanes, and public footpaths which make it a haven for those seeking a more tranquil setting.

Lower Frankton is conveniently situated broadly equidistant between the picturesque town of Ellesmere and the thriving market town of Oswestry which, between them, offer a range of day to day amenities. The county centres of Shrewsbury, Wrexham, and Chester all lie within easy reach and nearby Gobowen and Wem enjoy rail links to the wider area.

THE PROPERTY

The accommodation extends to approximately 798 sq ft (74.1 sq m) and is arranged over two floors.

An entrance porch opens into the ground-floor accommodation, where there is a well-proportioned reception room with fireplace, together with a separate kitchen and bathroom. Although the fittings and finishes are now dated, the accommodation provides a straightforward layout from which a programme of refurbishment could be undertaken.

On the first floor, the landing gives access to three bedrooms, together with useful built-in storage. Several rooms enjoy attractive outlooks across the surrounding countryside.

OUTSIDE

Ashlands stands within gardens and grounds extending to approximately 0.39 acres, providing considerably more outside space than might ordinarily be expected with a property of this type.

The size and nature of the plot provide ample opportunity for the creation of more formal lawns, productive gardens or additional recreational space, according to individual requirements.

The gardens are presently relatively undeveloped and offer substantial scope for landscaping and improvement. Mature hedging and established planting provide natural boundaries, whilst the open aspect creates a pleasing outlook towards the surrounding countryside.

Set separately from the cottage is a detached double garage, providing useful parking, workshop or storage accommodation. Together with the generous gardens, this represents a significant additional asset to the property.

SERVICES

We are advised that the property benefits from mains water and electrics. Drainage is to a private system.
