Description

Set within a period building on Wimpole Street, this beautifully renovated one-bedroom apartment pairs classic elegance with a crisp, contemporary finish. Herringbone floors run throughout, leading from a light-filled reception room, with its fireplace surround and statement chandelier, to a sleek Shaker-style kitchen. The bedroom is a calm retreat with twin sash windows, a full-height upholstered headboard and fitted wardrobes. The walk-in shower room is beautifully finished. The building's grand entrance hall, with its chequerboard floor and panelled walls, sets the tone from the moment you arrive, and Marylebone High Street, Regent's Park and Bond Street are all moments away.
