Honor Oak Park, SE23

A handsome five bedroom semi-detached period home with fabulous high ceilings in this prime location in Honor Oak opposite One Tree Hill Nature Reserve.

Arranged over three levels with some great sizes, including the 15' kitchen diner and 16' lounge, this home offers versatile living accommodation. The large entrance hall with stained glass windows and impressive staircase are a standout feature. There is a lovely roof terrace to the side along with an impressive, attractive mature south facing garden and to the front off street parking. There are some amazing far reaching views over South London from the upper floors.

The home is found within a couple of hundred metres of the Honor Oak Overground station and local shops whilst popular schools nearby include both Fairlawn Primary and Horniman Primary.
