Location

The property is located on Oswald Terrace in the established residential area of Old South Moor, Stanley, County Durham (DH9 7ET). Stanley town centre is approximately 1 mile to the south, offering a range of local amenities including shops, supermarkets, schools, healthcare facilities and public houses.

The area benefits from good transport links, with regular bus services providing access to Stanley, Chester-le-Street and Durham City. The A693 and A693/A691 road networks are easily accessible, connecting to the A1(M) approximately 6 miles to the east, providing convenient links to Newcastle upon Tyne, Durham and the wider North East region. The property sits within a predominantly residential setting, surrounded by traditional housing, and is well positioned for potential alternative uses (subject to the necessary consents).

Description

The property comprises a detached, two-storey stone-built premises beneath a pitched slate roof, set within a secure walled and fenced compound. The site benefits from ample on-site parking to the rear, providing convenient access for staff and visitors alike.

The accommodation extends to approximately 327 sq. m. (3,525 sq. ft.) and is arranged over two levels. The ground floor provides a spacious open-plan hall with ancillary storage areas, while the lower ground floor comprises a series of offices, kitchen facilities, additional storage rooms, and male, female and disabled WC facilities.

The property is presented to a very good standard throughout, having been most recently occupied as a place of worship. The internal layout offers flexibility and could be readily adapted to suit alternative operational requirements.

The building would be suitable for a variety of potential uses, subject to the necessary planning consents and appropriate use class being obtained.
