Set in one of Plymouth’s most prestigious Victorian streets, this exceptional split level apartment overlooks Freedom Fields Park and enjoys period elegance, generous proportions and views across the city, the River Plym, Plymouth Sound, to Cornwall and out into the English Channel.

Approached via a private entrance, with two parking spaces on Queen's Road, the apartment is mainly on the second floor of a building dating from 1898. The kitchen has ample cabinetry and a breakfast bar, with a balcony offering an elevated outlook towards the River Plym and Dartmoor. A magnificent reception room with extensive shelving has an inviting library style, yet its generous proportions offer versatility as an elegant dining room or a reading retreat. It provides a wonderful opportunity to tailor the accommodation to your lifestyle. Stairs lead to a large private roof terrace, presenting an exciting opportunity to create an exceptional outdoor space, subject to any necessary permissions. Its elevated position offers breathtaking views across the city and towards Plymouth Sound and the English Channel. The drawing room has original beams, an abundance of natural light and ample space for statement furniture and a fireplace. With views towards the sea, this room provides an impressive backdrop for relaxed evenings or entertaining. Mirroring the drawing room, the principal bedroom enjoys the same captivating aspect, with generous proportions and period character. There is a further spacious double bedroom to the rear and a single bedroom with bespoke cabinetry, suitable for use as a home office. The spacious luxury bathroom features a spa style bath with jets, a large shower enclosure and twin basins, while a utility room and a cloakroom complete the accommodation.

With its prestigious setting and parkland outlook, far reaching views, versatile reception spaces, large roof terrace, share of freehold and no onward chain, this truly remarkable apartment simply must be viewed.
