BUSINESS RATES

We believe the building has a rateable value of £2,700, and interested parties should speak to the Local Council - Shropshire Council on , to ascertain what level of business rates will be applicable. Concessions may apply.

PLANNING PERMISSION

Planning permission was previously granted in 2005, by Oswestry Borough Council. Having been granted as part of an adjoining scheme of works, which has commenced. The specific permission is for demolition of the existing structure, and erection of a new two storey building with retail area to ground floor, and residential flat above, at building at rear of 27 Cross Street, Oswestry.

There is potential for planning permission for a residential dwelling at both ground and first floors, and there may also be alternative uses for the building which might be permitted. Interested parties need to satisfy themselves as to what planning permission they need, and whether the existing permission or any other uses require further permissions, both in planning and building control terms.

We do have a planning department within our company and may be able to help with such enquires.
