A charming Victorian terraced house, ideally positioned in a sought-after location on the outskirts of Arundel, within easy reach of local amenities including schools, shops, restaurants and pubs. Arundel mainline train station is also within comfortable walking distance.

The ground floor offers light and well-proportioned accommodation with engineered oak wood flooring throughout, comprising a bright sitting room featuring a fitted log burner, creating a warm and inviting focal point. From here, the property flows through to a separate dining room, benefiting from an under-stairs storage cupboard and staircase rising to the first floor.

The kitchen/breakfast room is fitted with a range of modern eye- and base-level units, with integrated oven and hob and space for additional appliances. A breakfast bar provides further seating and storage, making this a practical and sociable space.

To the first floor are two generous double bedrooms, both with fitted wardrobes and en-suite facilities. The principal bedroom enjoys a well-appointed en-suite bathroom with bath, separate shower, WC and hand wash basin, while the second bedroom benefits from an en-suite shower room with walk-in shower,

WC and hand wash basin.

Outside, the property boasts a long, private rear garden, mainly laid to lawn and complemented by a raised terrace, decking area and summer house. Rear access is provided via a twitten, adding further convenience.

Directions

From the roundabout on the A27 and A284, proceed South down Ford Road taking the first right into Kirdford Road. The property will be found on the right hand side.
