THEY SAY LOOKS CAN BE DECEIVING SO PLEASE DO NOT BRUSH PAST THIS PROPERTY WITHOUT A SECOND GLANCE.

Just 125 metres from Burnham's beautiful river front and sea wall, ideal for vibrant High Street, shops, restaurants, yacht clubs and general amenities.

Circa 1852 and originally two cottages 27-29 Chapel Road offers incredibly deceptive first appearance accommodation. We would urge you to pay particular attention to the photography and video tour, to genuinely see the quality and level of space on offer.

The property has been completely and sympathetically modernised and loved by its present owners for the last 20 years. They have managed to keep the cottages charm and character but uplifted this to the highest of standards throughout.

The ground floor offers a spacious dining room/reception room with an open fireplace and stairs to bedroom two en-suite, a gorgeous lounge with fireplace and multi stove burner, stairs to bedroom one en-suite. The extended kitchen/breakfast room is a fabulous room to entertain and enjoy backing the beautifully laid out rear garden and finally on this floor a cloakroom/w/c. The first floor double bedrooms each have their own staircases and well fitted en-suites. Externally a beautiful, private garden landscaped and set out to relax, entertain and enjoy with a summer house and side access.
