The village has a strong community feel, with the church and active village hall hosting a range of activities and events. For those who enjoy the outdoors, the surrounding countryside provides excellent opportunities for walking, cycling and exploring. Despite its tranquil setting, everyday amenities and larger centres are readily accessible, with Shrewsbury approximately seven miles away, Newport, Telford and the M54 also all within easy reach.

As you enter this truly unique home you will find a cloakroom and useful utility room from the hallway. The characterful kitchen/breakfast room features solid timber worktops, Belfast sink, exposed wood flooring and a Rayburn set upon a raised brick hearth. The impressive living room is undoubtedly the centrepiece, with generous proportions, beautiful vaulted and beamed ceiling, magnificent tall arched window and multi-fuel burner. Two well proportioned bedrooms/reception rooms occupy the ground floor, alongside a bathroom, providing excellent flexibility for family, guests or home working. A conservatory offers a peaceful additional reception space with pleasant views of the gardens.

The staircase leads to a first floor landing and hallway with Velux windows adding wonderful natural light. The principal bedroom is a particularly impressive space, featuring exposed brickwork, two roof lights and built-in storage. Bedroom Four/Dressing Room provides further flexibility and is served by a Jack and Jill shower room.

The gardens have been thoughtfully managed with wildlife in mind, creating a natural setting around the house. There are lawns, sectioned garden areas and sunny terraces, complemented by a wildlife pond, meadow planting and bird and bat boxes. The result is a garden which changes with the seasons and provides plenty of opportunities for outdoor dining, entertaining, gardening or simply enjoying the surroundings. A large off-road parking area to the front provides ample parking for residents and visitors.
