‘Set within a south-facing position amongst wraparound gardens, a charming detached thatched cottage which has been sympathetically extended offering versatile accommodation’

The Property

This detached thatched cottage features an abundance of charm and character occupying a sunny south-facing position towards the edge of the village of Sutton Benger. Originally constructed as two cottages around 500 years ago, the property has been sympathetically extended in modern times and has been superbly maintained. The accommodation has a versatile layout offering ground floor bedroom options, principally arranged over two floors extending to around 1,789 sq.ft.

The property is accessed over a shared driveway positioned at the side leading to a large parking bay for at least four vehicles. An entrance hall is conveniently accessed from the parking area and features a magnificent high vaulted ceiling with stairs leading to the first floor. The main reception area is arranged at the front benefitting from the natural southerly light and comprises a living room and dining room both with fireplaces, a study, and a well-fitted kitchen equipped with a fridge/freezer, dishwasher, and microwave. There is a ground floor shower room alongside two further receptions/bedrooms. A utility room at the rear has accessed into the garage store. On the first floor, there are three bedrooms, a family bathroom, and an en-suite to the principal bedroom.

The cottage sits amongst wonderful wraparound gardens featuring cottage style planted borders, mature shrubs and trees providing a good degree of privacy. There are multiple patios positioned to make the most of the sunshine including a very large patio terrace at the rear with a delightful thatched well.

Situation

Sutton Benger is a sought-after North Wiltshire village very well-located for road networks to London and the South West. Sutton Benger has a pub, the well-regarded La Flambe
