Description

The Old Malt Kiln is a stylish detached family home offering spacious flexibly arranged accommodation located on the edge of this popular village situated between Ripley and Harrogate.

The property offers the flexibility of four bedroom accommodation over two floors, two of which are at the ground floor and would be ideal for relatives and guests, teenagers wishing to escape their parents, or could be easily converted into a separate granny annexe. There is ample private parking plus an integral garage that has a useful store to the lower ground floor.

The heart of this beautiful home is its spacious living kitchen that has both a breakfast bar and ample space for dining table and chairs. The kitchen units offer base cupboards with an integrated dishwasher, washing machine and a Belfast sink with a long distance Nidderdale view. There is a freestanding Range Master cooking range with an extractor hood over.

To the ground floor, there is a L shaped reception hall with exposed stonework and new flooring. There are two double bedrooms and a fully tiled house shower room.

At the first floor, there is a stunning spacious lounge with a feature log burning stove set to a stone fireplace. There is a Master bedroom with a walk-in dressing room and an ensuite shower room. Additionally there is a further double bedroom and house bathroom.

Outside there are numerous private sitting areas that provide fantastic entertaining space with far reaching views over the local countryside.

Located on the main A61 Ripon Road, the position could not be more convenient for those wishing to walk to Ripley or to catch the number 36 bus through to Harrogate and Ripon. In Killinghall, there is a cricket club, Church, primary school and Tesco Express.

Nearby Harrogate offers a white choice of schooling options and a good road and rail network connecting the traveller and commuter to Leeds, York and London.

In Harrogate there is a wide choice of secondary schools as well as a whole host of bars, restaurants and cafés.
