Tucked at the foot of Bay Bank in the heart of Robin Hood's Bay, The Kingshead Maisonette is a characterful coastal retreat just moments from the shoreline.

Step inside and you're immediately wrapped in a sense of history, with rich panelling, a feature fireplace, and a cosy window seat overlooking the quaint street below. The spacious lounge offers a warm and versatile space—perfect for quiet evenings or relaxed gatherings after a day by the sea.

The kitchen is well equipped and offers a practical space for cooking and dining.

Upstairs, two inviting bedrooms continue the story, including one with striking original oak panelling and its own feature fireplace. From here, a drop-down ladder leads to a hidden gem—a remarkable roof space where far-reaching views stretch across the bay towards Ravenscar and the open sea beyond.

A neatly presented bathroom with corner bath and shower completes the accommodation.

With the beach just seconds away and the timeless atmosphere of the village on your doorstep, this is a home that offers both escape and character in equal measure.

Please note: Access is via steps and may not be suitable for those with limited mobility. The property also includes an element of flying freehold, which may appeal more to cash buyers.

Tenure: Freehold
