Top-floor two-bedroom apartment in Ulverston with Juliette balcony, long lease and parking, moments from Purfleet station offering direct London links—stylish, spacious and perfectly positioned for modern living.

Welcome to your next chapter—perched proudly on the top floor in the ever-popular Ulverston, this bright and brilliantly spacious two-bedroom apartment is serving views, vibes, and very easy commuting.

Let's talk lifestyle. Just moments from Purfleet station (yes, that one with direct links straight into London Fenchurch Street), this home is basically your golden ticket to city access without sacrificing peace, space, or sanity. Morning meeting? No problem. Late-night plans? You're covered.

Inside, the property delivers a fresh, airy feel throughout. The generous reception room is the real social hub—perfect for hosting, lounging, or pretending you're productive while actually scrolling. And then there's the Juliette balcony... doors open, breeze flowing, coffee in hand—it's giving "main character energy."

Both bedrooms are well-proportioned, making them ideal for sharers, guests, or that home office you swear you'll use properly. The kitchen and bathroom keep things practical yet polished, while the top-floor position means no upstairs neighbours (a quiet luxury we all appreciate).

Add to that an impressive lease of approximately 133 years and allocated parking—because circling for a space is not part of the dream—and you've got a property that ticks boxes you didn't even know you had.

In short: it's stylish, it's connected, and it's ready for its next owner to move in and level up.
