We are delighted to offer this charming Three Bedroom End of Terrace House located on one of the areas most popular roads. Hitchin town centre is close by with its various amenities, as well as the mainline station for fast commuter access to Central London. The light interior accommodation is in good decorative order but offers massive potential to extend and convert further into an ideal family home. Offered with no onward chain and with the added benefit of its own detached garage too, an early viewing is thoroughly recommended.
