Rear garden with planning

Two semi-detached houses

£1,300,000

- Planning permission granted
- Detached residence with building plot
- Investment and development
- Plans and further information

A rare and exciting opportunity to acquire a spacious linked-detached residence together with a substantial residential development plot to the rear, set within one of Leamington's most established and sought-after locations.

Occupying a unique position on Russell Terrace, this mature and highly desirable site enjoys close proximity to Leamington town centre and comes with the significant advantage of full planning permission for the construction of two semi-detached homes. Unlike many development opportunities, the site offers a clear and straightforward route to delivery.

Leamington Spa continues to benefit from ongoing investment and regeneration, enhancing its appeal as one of Warwickshire's most desirable places to live. The area offers an excellent range of local amenities, highly regarded schools, convenient transport links, and beautiful surrounding countryside.

This exceptional opportunity is ideally suited to developers, investors, or owner-occupiers seeking to create two distinctive new homes in a premium residential setting.
