Guide Price £190,000

A modern two-bedroom quarter house, conveniently positioned in a quiet setting off the road, offering excellent access to Bury St Edmunds town centre and the A14. Offered with no onward chain, this well presented home has been redecorated throughout and provides bright and airy, low-maintenance accommodation ideally suited to a range of discerning buyers or those seeking a convenient lock-up-and-leave property.

Built of traditional brick construction beneath a tiled roofline, a composite front door opens into an entrance lobby leading through to the light and airy sitting/dining room, which enjoys a pleasant outlook to the front and staircase rising to the first floor. The adjoining kitchen is fitted with a stylish range of high-gloss white units providing ample cupboard and drawer storage beneath preparation surfaces, complemented by an integrated oven, hob with extractor over, stainless steel sink with drainer and space for additional appliances.

On the first floor, the landing provides access to two well-proportioned bedrooms, with the principal bedroom benefiting from a fitted sliding-door wardrobe and integral airing cupboard. A contemporary bathroom fitted with a modern white suite completes the accommodation.

Having been significantly improved by the current owner, the property further benefits from UPVC double glazing and updated electric heating, enhancing comfort, practicality and efficiency.

Outside

Outside, there is a small, low-maintenance front garden area together with a useful lockable external storage cupboard and an allocated parking space. Occupying a tucked-away position set off the road, the property enjoys a peaceful setting whilst remaining within easy reach of the town centre's extensive amenities and offering straightforward access to the A14, making it an ideal choice for commuters.

Location

Bury St Edmunds is widely regarded as one of Suffolk's most desirable market towns, offering an exceptional blend of historic charm and modern amenities. Renowned for its impressive Cathedral, vibrant cultural scene, theatres, cinemas, restaurants and attractive green spaces, the town provides an outstanding lifestyle for residents of all ages. A bustling market continues to operate every Wednesday and Saturday, while an excellent mix of independent shops, cafés and national retailers creates a thriving and welcoming town centre.

Set in the heart of Suffolk, Bury St Edmunds benefits from excellent educational facilities, a strong community atmosphere and superb transport links. The A14 provides easy access to Cambridge, Ipswich and the wider road network, while regular rail services make the town a popular choice for commuters. Combining character, convenience and a wealth of amenities, it is easy to see why Bury St Edmunds remains such a sought-after place to call home.
