The Property

Lleast is a charming smallholding located in a convenient rural position a short drive off the A483. This charming two bedroom detached cottage is complimented by an impressive detached timber clad American Barn which offers seven stables and hay store. In addition there are three well fenced pasture paddocks, perfect for the keeping of horses and ponies! The cottage offers huge potential to extend (subject to gaining any necessary permissions). Standing on 2.8 acres in total.

As you step into the cottage a front entrance porch gives access into the lounge, this light room boasts a fitted wood burning stove, perfect to cosy around in the winter months. With two windows to the front the room is light and overlooks the paddocks and garden. To the side of the lounge is the modern kitchen, fitted with ample fitted cream fronted units and with an electric Aga style cooker is well presented for sale. To the rear of the cottage is the ground floor shower room, again updated like the kitchen the white suite is fitted with a large walk in shower, WC and wash basin. From the lounge a stair leads to the first floor landing, the landing offers enough space for an office and with doors to both double bedrooms. From both bedrooms you enjoy lovely south facing views over the paddocks and garden. The cottage is double glazed, with oil fired central heating and the fitted wood burner in the lounge.

Outside

Externally the cottage stands on just under three acres. With two vehicular accesses off the council road, the first leads to the front of the cottage with the second, a double gated access opening onto a large gravelled driveway, which offers ample parking and turning for a number of vehicles and parking trailers. To the side of the driveway is a modern concrete yard which precedes the American Barn and stables, ideal for mucking out the horses. The impressive detached timber clad Barn (16.5m x 9.2m) has double doors to the front, with a concrete floor, power and lighting. Offering a fodder store and 7 stables. Complimenting the stables are three well fenced and maintained paddocks, mainly flat with a gentle slope, perfect pony paddocks. To the front of the cottage is a garden, ideal if you are looking for some home grown veg or for children to play. To the side of the driveway is a dog kennel and two detached garden sheds.

The Location

The property is located a short drive from the Mid Wales village of Crossgates, which offers a close knit community and has facilities to include a petrol station, cafe, shop as well as a primary school and proves a very popular village to live.

The village is located a 5 mile drive from the town of Llandrindod Wells or more locally known as Llandod is the county town of the largest county in Wales, Powys. Offering an extensive range of retail, recreational and educational facilities the spa town is a popular destination for visitors owing to the picturesque surrounding countryside and mixture of beautiful Victorian and Edwardian town houses, which overshadow the winding streets of many independent and well-known chained stores. Served by the Arriva Heart of Wales Line which links Shrewsbury and Swansea, Llandrindod is easily accessible by both rail and road with several local bus services in and around the area, neighbouring towns and villages. There is outstanding education available in the area, with several primary schools and a comprehensive secondary school and six form. As mentioned Llandrindod Wells offers a great deal of everyday essentials, with an excellent range of independent retailers and a number of supermarkets chains, farm materials, banks, electrical stores and a large array of bars and restaurants with more further facilities for commerce, leisure, shopping and education available at Builth Wells, Rhayader and further a field Brecon. If you like to spend your time soaking up some local culture Llandrindod plays host to a theatre - The Albert Hall theatre, a museum - the National Cycle Collection in memory of Tom Norton, or the large man-made lake and accompanying sculptures. The town also hosts the annual Victorian Festival Many where locals and some visitors dress in Victorian, Edwardian or other antique costumes, and many of the town's shops and other high-street businesses dress their windows or otherwise join in the spirit of the event. If you are somebody that likes to participate in leisure activities and, Llandrindod is an ideal place for you, the town has many sporting and recreational facilities including a Football Club, Rugby Club, an international standard outdoor bowling green which hosts national and international events and a newer indoor bowling centre and highly regarded 18 hole, links golf course with driving range. There is also a leisure centre housing a full sized swimming pool, gymnasium, astroturf pitch and indoor sports hall.
