The well-proportioned layout includes a bright central hallway off which are the the spacious and dual aspect 22ft sitting room with French doors leading out to the garden, and the generous and well appointed kitchen/dining room with a separate adjacent utility room with a useful side door. These two rooms connect seamlessly thanks to large double doors which when open create a wonderful open-plan entertaining space. There is also a guest WC and a versatile study or snug which complete the ground floor. Underfloor heating enhances comfort on this level, and the house is well insulated, making it energy efficient.

Approached via a private driveway the house benefits from ample parking as well as a detached single garage with power, lighting, and eaves storage. A covered area with its own gate, beside the garage provides practical storage for bicycles and the like.

The gardens are to the rear and have been thoughtfully landscaped, featuring a raised stone patio area and well-stocked flower beds. Designed for ease of maintenance, the garden offers a high degree of privacy and is perfect for those seeking a manageable outdoor space. To the front, a terraced and fully planted area enhances privacy and kerb appeal.

LOCATION

Nailsworth is a thriving market town with a fabulous community spirit, located in the south-west of the Cotswolds with good road and rail links. It is easily accessible to London (under 2 hours by car), or circa 90 minutes by rail from nearby Stroud Station.

Nailsworth lacks for nothing and has many independent retailers including an outstanding delicatessen (William's) with fresh fish counter, an award winning bakery (Hobbs House) and wine merchant, as well as a national supermarket and other food outlets. There is also a wide choice of places to eat out including several excellent restaurants. Nailsworth is also home to Forest Green Rovers Football Club.

There are a number of sought after schools within easy reach, including a number of excellent grammar schools. In addition, many of the Gloucester and Cheltenham schools run transport for students from Nailsworth.

The surrounding countryside is unspoilt with great walks and popular cycle tracks.

Nearby Stroud has an award winning Saturday Farmers Market and there are plenty of local sports clubs and several challenging golf courses nearby.
